

The Philharmonia of Greater Kansas City

Mission Statement

By providing a facility and highly talented direction, The Philharmonia of Greater Kansas City allows talented musicians an opportunity to satisfy their love for classical music and to fulfill their continuing desire to perform. The orchestra thus provides symphonic, family-oriented entertainment at an affordable cost and in a convenient location for a variety of audiences (students, families, retirees, etc.), who otherwise might not have the financial circumstance or accessibility to such classical programs with such a consistently superior quality of performance.

You can help The Philharmonia of Greater Kansas City realize its mission by becoming a 2009-10 season subscriber. One ticket for each of the season's concerts for which admission is charged will be given for each donation of $75. Additional tickets for larger donations are listed below.

Andrés Franco is eager that his final year as music director of The Philharmonia is a very special one. Your contribution will help in that effort!!!

Subscribers will be listed in each program as follows:

Up to $75 ~ Friend

$75-$149 ~ Section Chair (one ticket)

$150-$299 ~ Principal Chair (two tickets)

$300-$499 ~ Concertmaster (four tickets)

$500-$999 ~ Conductor's Circle (six tickets)

$1,000 and above ~ Patron (how many would you like?)
